The Department of state of the United States; its history and functions, by Gaillard Hunt ... New Haven, Yale university press, etc., etc., 1914.

"In 1863 I prepared, as a part of the exhibit of the Department of state at the World's fair at Chicago, an historical sketch of the department, which is subsequently reprinted for its use. This sketch furnished the basis of two tracts pamphlets on the same subject, one for the exhibition at Omaha in 1898, and the other for the Buffalo exhibition in 1901. Beginning in October, 1907, and running until October, 1912, the American journal of international law printed the complete study of the department, which, with some rearrangement and additions, constitutes this volume."—Pref.

Photostat negative made at the New York Public Library, 1925-1927, from the facsimile belonging to the Newberry Library, Chicago, of British museum Additional manuscript 24677-24682, 6 vols. 1820-1824, 30 cm.
"Writers from the beginning of letters to the close of the 17th century" including "all persons who have borne a part, however small, or however worthless." Each volume has an index, of prefatory notice, dated March 31, 1820, fol. 3rd in vol. 1.

Hunter, Joseph, 1783-1861. Chorus vatium anglicanorum ...

(Card 2)
Not collated. The manuscript was pagged originally, preliminary leaves in some of the volumes being numbered with roman numerals, and the text leaves "casually not numbered. Later the manuscript was foliated (numm. of by leaves. 1, 1st, 2nd, 3rd, etc.) in the photostat facsimile, the rectos and versos of leaves of the ms. form separate leaves: in the case of a considerable number of leaves only one side, recto or verso, is represented, the omitted pages being presumably blank in the original. ("Partial typed into on slips of paper of 'pages missing' in the Newberry facsimile, were received with some of the volumes."
